NOTES

- Divisions after 1940 are made at the start of new Governments. The one exception is 1947 when it is known that Attlee reconstructed the committee structure.
- Created 1858; dissolved 1888, when the National Defence Committee was created.
- Created 1902 from the National Defence Committee.
- Not to be confused with the later War Cabinet.
- Created in 1915 out of the War Committee.
- Merged with the Foreign Affairs Committee in 1963 to form the Overseas Policy and Defence Committee.
- These committees existed during the period 1916-25. Exact dates are not clear.

8. Created 1931. Met infrequently.

9. Created 1944.

10. Created 1956.

11. Created 1961.

12. Became Public Expenditure Scrutiny Committee in 1965.

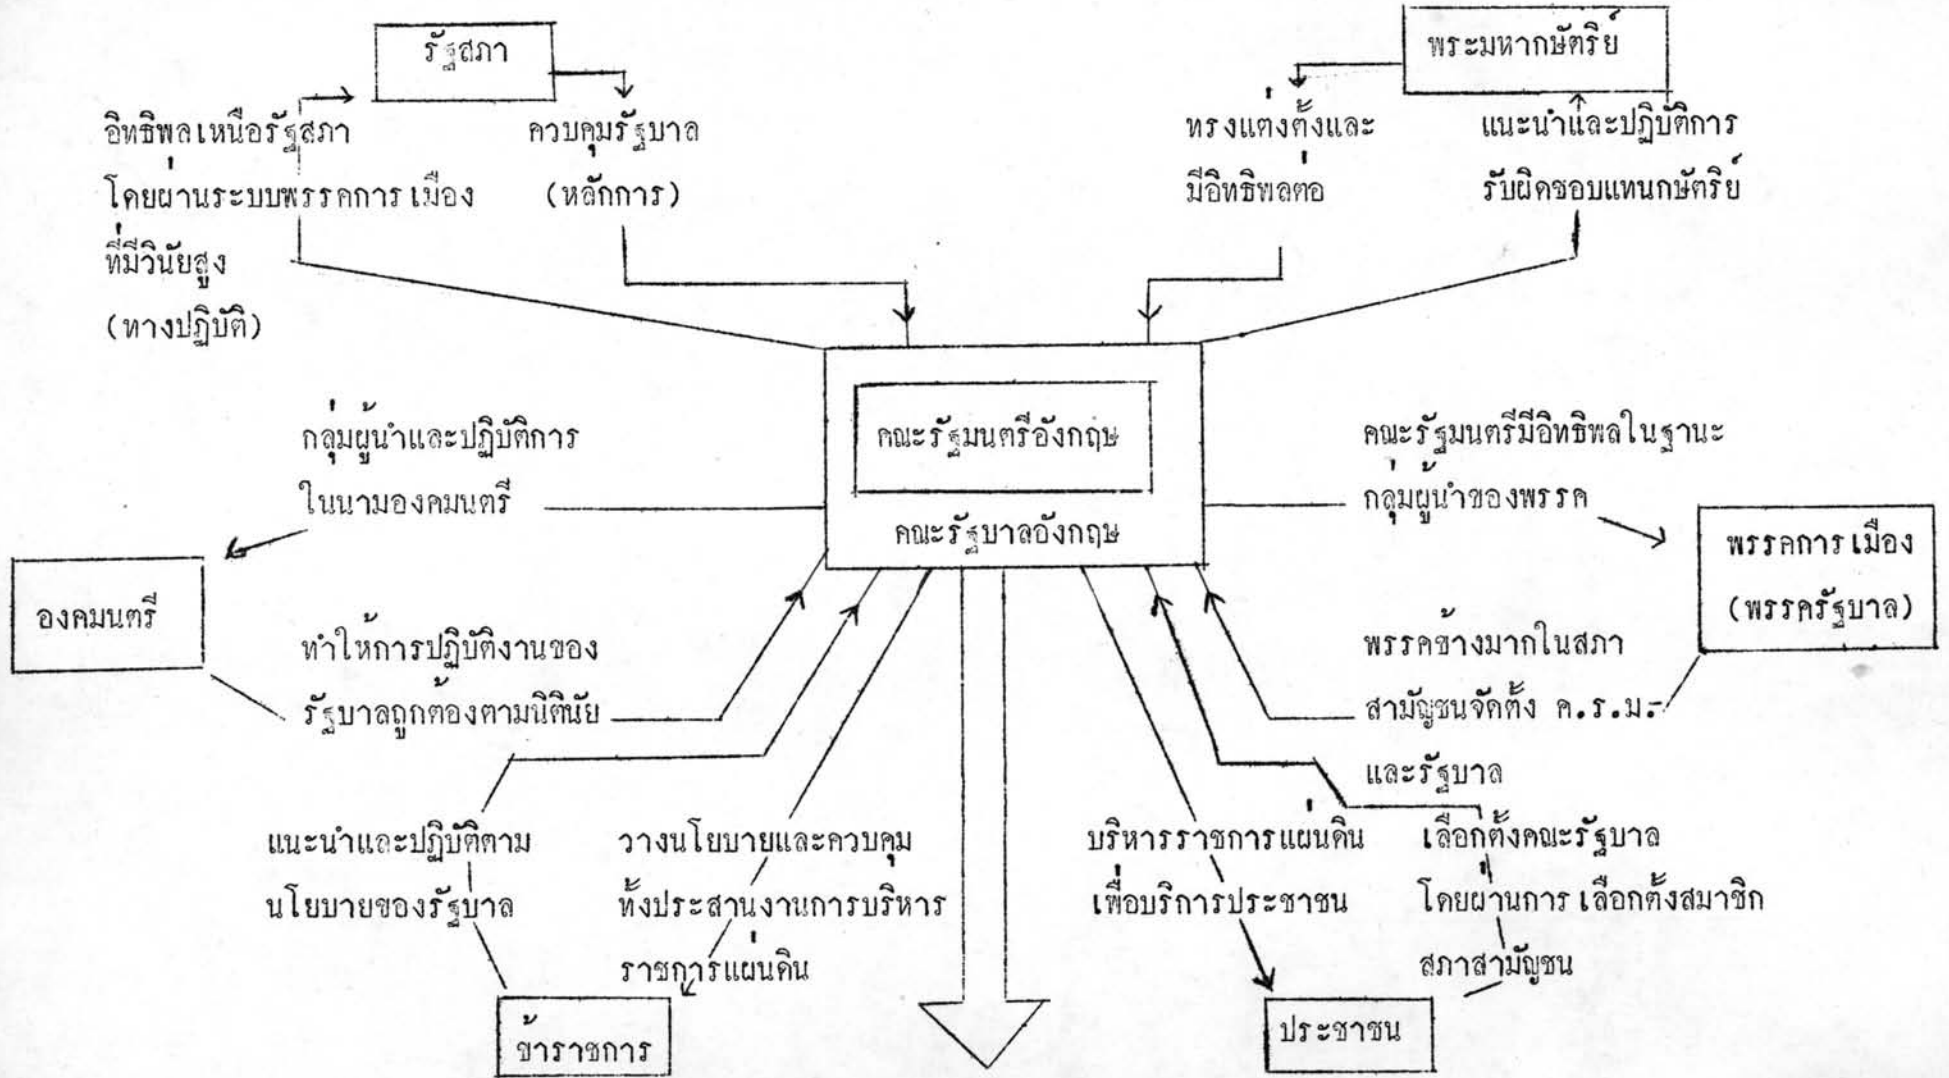

* Chaired by Prime Minister

† Chaired by other Cabinet Minister

Cabinet committees fall within the ambit of the Official Secrets Act. This has made it difficult to present an accurate portrayal of the committee structure, particularly in the post-war period where there is no access to Cabinet papers and little has been given away in memoirs and similar sources.
