ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The writer wishes to express his indebtedness and deep appreciation to Alan E. Guskin, the writer's advisor, for his constant advice and guidance throughout the period of writing this thesis. Without his advice and guidance this thesis would not have been possible. To Dr. Surang Kowatrakul and to Dr. Saieuree Chutikul, members of the writer's committee, he expresses his thanks for their critical reading and advice. He would also like to thank Mrs. Judith Guskin and Barbara and Michael Mery for their help in correcting the language of this thesis. Thanks are also due to James V. Shannon and Mrs. Jantorn Chatiburus for their suggestions and to the writer's friends for their help in the administration of the questionnaire.
