

Two Victorian Women Novelists:
A Comparison of the Characters and Works
of
Mrs. Gaskell and Charlotte Brontë

by
Vilad Prathnadi

๒๒๙๒๑

A thesis
submitted in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Master of Arts in the Faculty of Arts
of Chulalongkorn University
B.E. 2503 (1960)

Acknowledgement

The writer of this thesis wishes to express her sincere gratitude to her supervisor for his guidance and unfailing encouragement. She is also indebted to the British Council, from which many of the necessary books and reference works were obtained; it would have been very difficult to find these materials elsewhere in Bangkok. Thanks are also offered to those who have cooperated in giving advice.

Table of contents

Chapter	Page
I The Lives of Mrs. Gaskell and Charlotte Brontë .....	1
Mrs. Gaskell .....	1
Charlotte Brontë .....	11
A Comparison of the Two Lives .....	23
II Characters, Interests and Aims .....	32
Mrs. Gaskell .....	32
Charlotte Brontë .....	32
Characters, Interests and Aims—A Comparison .....	40
III Works .....	45
Mrs. Gaskell's Works .....	45
Charlotte Brontë's Works .....	65
IV A Comparison of Literary Materials and Methods .....	94
Scenes .....	103
Plots .....	108
Characters .....	114
V Conclusion .....	117