

CHAPTER VI

ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY

Payanandand, V., et al.,(1999). Battle against Tuberculosis

Tuberculosis Division, Department of Communicable Disease Control, Ministry of Public Health, Thailand.

This book describe the overview of population, geographic economic status. The role and functions of Ministry of Public Health, The summary of disease controlling, The Department of TB controlling,, TB situation in Thailand. Controlling methodology and pre and post implementing results of DOTS include the evaluation of Regional of CDC performance.

Tuberculosis Division, (1999). National Policy Guidelines for the Newly Revised TB Control Strategy in Thailand.

Agency Roles and Personnel Responsibilities at Regional and District Levels.

This document quoot about the new way of TB controlling procedure diagnosis, patient's classifying, Type of discharging, formal report system and the role of TB controlling co-ordinator in region level, provincial and district level, The expanding of DOTS strategy and the index of DOTS implementing successfully.

Tuberculosis Division, (1999) National Tuberculosis Program Thailand
Department of Communicable Disease Control, Ministry of Public Health

This publication explains the goals, objectives, and activities of the NTP in Thailand along with the roles at each level of health care system for NTP. The book also provides guidelines for TB case diagnosis, treatment recording and reporting.

World Health Organization Global Tuberculosis, SEAR New Delhi, (2000) Stopping Tuberculosis

This book is briefly regard TB situation of the world which is crisis in the South East Asia. Sign and symptoms of patient, diagnosis and roles of health personal and Non-government organization in prevention and controlling of TB by DOTS strategy.

World Health organization Global Tuberculosis,(1998) Treatment of Tuberculosis,

A Guideline for National Program (2 nd edit). Geneva. WHO/GTB.

This book provides a general guideline for national TB control program in many countries. It describes about the global burden of TB, implementation of DOTS in health care system. The objectives, targets of WHO for TB control programs, and management package for DOTS are included in the book. It is recommended to adopt appropriate approaching the patients in compliance of treatment.

World Health organization, ,(1999) What is DOTS ?

A guideline to understand WHO's recommendation of TB Control Strategy which known as DOTS. It describes the history of DOTS's development and indicates the urgent need of implementing DOTS to Control Tuberculosis's epidemic in the world.